My heart truly breaks to hear of the passing of Clarence. Clarence was a wonderful man. He was strong, faithful and had such a kind and caring heart. Kat and I have been best friends since we were 3 old so Clarence was like a father to me. My love and support and prayers go out to the whole family.

Clarence was our neighbor for over 35 years. Our Lord commands that we love our neighbor as ourself. Clarence epitomized his faith with his kind and servant heart to his neighbors. Whether he was helping to watch our dogs when we were away or just talking in the yard about lawn care, we always witnessed someone who cared about others. We send our deepest sympathy to Jean and his children and pray that you are comforted by precious memories and the knowledge that Clarence now rests in Our Savior's arms. John and Vickey Mitchell

I was sorry to hear about the passing of Clarence. My thoughts and prayers go out to Jean and his family. Clarence and I spent many years working together at church and became really good friends. He was a strong supporter of Many Helping Hands and was always willing to help. He had a Big Heart and he will be greatly missed.

All of the dinners that Jean and I worked together at the church. And having Clarence run to the store for us. He was always someone you could count on to help you. Helping put up the Christmas tree. I will miss him greatly.

Clarence was kindness and sweetness and goodness. The entire family exemplifies these attributes, thanks to his example. I have so many sweet memories, as well as a few silly ones. Your face-plant on the church lawn, as we emptied food pantry supplies from your truck, always makes me smile. I remember how we laughed at the time and over the years. (Jean was not amused.) You are dearly loved and will be dearly missed. Keep singing. 🎵 Cathy G
